

Boys to Men Guest Speakers

Michael Davis is currently the Managing Director of Moxie International, a company located in Loomis, California whom manufacturer concrete solution products internationally. Prior to this, Michael had a successful fifteen-year career in the automotive business. From 2000 to 2012, Michael was apart of the prestigious Sacramento based Niello Company as a General Manager. As General Manager, Michael oversaw four of the Niello Company's franchises including Audi, Jaguar, Land Rover and Maserati. In 2012 Automotive News recognized two of Michael's dealerships as the "100 Best Dealerships to Work For" award out of almost 18,000 dealerships nationwide. His dealerships have gone on to win the coveted award an additional five times in the past three years. Michael is a devoted husband to his wife Linda and an engaged father to their six amazing sons. Michael has been involved with coaching youth soccer for the past eight years at both Roseville Youth Soccer Club and Placer United Soccer Club. He recently spent close to two years on the Placer United Board of Directors where he helped guide the Club into a new direction. Michael and his family are very active at their local church, Bayside Covenant Church in Granite Bay, California. Michael is also apart of the leadership of another local ministry, The Upper Room Prayer, Worship and Healing Centre in Loomis, California. The Davis Family currently live, worship and play in Loomis, California.

Dr. Dan Biddle is the president of Genesis Apologetics, a 501C3 ministry dedicated to helping students withstand the evolution teaching in public schools & hold strong to Biblical Creation. Dan also helps with the Knights of Christ program that ushers young men into Biblical manhood. His book, The Seven Pillars of Manhood, is being used as a study guide to accompany this program.

www.genesisapologetics.com

Matt Robertson is our Precast Business Development Director and has a passion for people, building relationships and developing excellent experiences for customers and partners. Matt has a Masters in Organizational Leadership from Eastern University and has varied experiences in guest relations, communications, strategic planning, operations and organizational development. Matt has lived in the Bahamas, Mexico, Bulgaria, Hungary and Uganda. While in Uganda, he served as the National Director for Habitat for Humanity. In addition, Matt has been involved in business and community development projects in SE Asia, India, Latin America, and Africa. Matt loves running, surfing, snowboarding and hanging with his son, daughter and amazing wife of 20 years.

Clayton Holcomb has extensive consulting experience in the areas of finance, investments, risk management, and estate planning. He began his career as a full service wealth advisor in 1987. Through his planning process, Clayton is able to explore a person's financial situation and provide custom tailored solutions that make a definable difference in his or her life. As a professional who is responsible for managing comprehensive investment decisions, he is driven to keep up with cutting edge financial strategies. Clayton attended California State University, Sacramento where he earned a Bachelor's of Science degree in Business Administration, with a triple concentration in Finance, Economics, and Accounting. Clayton has been happily married to his wife, Shanna since 1994, and is the proud father of four boys.